GLENCULLEN SACRISTAN HANGS UP HER KEYS

After some 40 years serving the Church of St Patrick's Glencullen, Mary Mahon has decided it is time to pass on her keys to her assistant Denis. Mary has served generously at the altar of the Lord, overseeing liturgies and being of tremendous support to innumerable priests down through the years.

We will miss her gentle presence, her warm smile and her attention to detail which always ensured that everything was kept in order.

We pray that Mary may enjoy the free time that a well-deserved retirement brings – but most of all that she may know there will always be a special place for her amongst the pews in which she served for so long.

To mark Mary's retirement we will hold a Mass of thanksgiving in St Patrick's in the very near future—date to be confirmed.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in the peace of Christ.

In November we remember.

"All I ask, that wherever you may be, you may remember me at the Altar of the Lord" St Monica.

A reminder that November is the month of Holy Souls when we remember our deceased loved ones in prayer. You are invited to compile a list of names for the Altar List of the Dead, which can be placed in the envelopes, available in the Church porches.

These can then be left into the sacristies or Parish Office. On the first Friday of every month, for the next year, Holy Mass will be offered for those whose names are on the Parish Altar List of the Dead.

There was no winner of the jackpot this week so next week's jackpot will be €5,800!
