WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY

Today is World Communications Day. This day was established by Pope Paul VI in 1967 as an annual celebration that encourages us to reflect on the opportunities and challenges that the modern means of social communication (the press, motions pictures, the internet) afford the Church to communicate the gospel message. In an age of social media – it reminds us to make good use of technology – always with the common good in mind – and the promotion and protection of God's Word.
